Just as soon as the Leach gets in his work the yellow fever begins to diminish.

The water supply of Tampa has been increased by putting in new wells and other improvements.

The Twice-a-Week Sun is the best advertising medium if you wish to reach the farmers of Alachua county.

Backer Washington denies that he invited Mrs. Warburton to dinner, at a colored boarding house in Saratoga.

The Alachua county officers are not saying much, but when a "tiger" is sighted he is quite certain to be their meat.

Tim Sullivan says that Washington does not compare with Albany, N. Y., for craft. He will withdraw from Congress.

The cotton crop is not all ruined by the bad weather. It frequently happens that the cry is made before the harvest is over.

The ethics of the health board at New Orleans demand the non-interference of Dr. Leach, with his arsenic cure of yellow fever.

The Presidential booms in Washington are getting so numerous and hot that the demand for electric fans is far ahead of the supply.

The Russians are very much pleased with their treatment in this country. They haven't run up against a bomb since they have been here.

The queen of Italy contemplates a visit to the United States. She will probably come to escape the anarchists who want to take her life.

Twelve bodies have been taken from the river near Norfolk, Va., victims of the railway wreck. One was the body of the bridge tender.

People who are surmising an early conclusion of the peace conference are undoubtedly not aware of the fact that the delegates get $20 a day and expenses.

President of Sulu has asked for the hand of Miss Alice Roosevelt in marriage. It is now time to set it to music and have the comic opera artists do the rest.

The Dental College, Atlanta, Ga., has sent out a very complete announcement for the opening of the fall term September 3rd. There are several students from this State enrolled.

The Normal in this city, which has been very successful this week, has been very successful and the attendance much larger than was at first anticipated, owing to the excellent condition of the educational affairs of the State at the outset.

The Daytona people claim that local conditions will carry that place sure. Alachua county is so quite certain to dry and Clay county will follow. If Alachua falls into the dry column the State will soon be as dry as a tinder box.

AN ATTRACTIVE TOWN.

There is nothing like having an attractive town. The man who accidentally stops over in a strange town, if he is a man of business, always makes inquiries as to the conveniences, and if you have waterworks, electric lights, gas for fuel and a daily paper, he looks around to see what there is to make all those enterprises go, and is sure to remark that "you have a pretty lively lot of people."

If a man is looking for a location, and he has a family to care for, nine times out of ten he will inquire about the drinking water and if you have a system of sewerage. These are essential to the health of any city, North or South, and good water will draw many people to any town, as the people of Gainesville well know.

A system of sewerage is necessary for the health of a city of any size, and is needed to make the waterworks more useful. With a sewerage system the waterworks can be put to more uses and be made a better source of revenue to the city.

These advantages require money to put them in operation, and when they are all in working order will be a source of revenue as well as convenience. Is it not better to build them at once on borrowed capital for which only a small rate of interest is paid, than to do a little at a time with the money received from year to year by direct taxation, and be years without the improvements. The work can be done better to be all done at once, the annoyance of having streets littered up will be avoided, and the expense be much less.

The issuance of bonds is necessary to complete this work, and while the burden to tax-payers is not so great, they can enjoy these comforts while they are paying for them only a small amount at a time.

RUSSIA AND HER ACTS.

It is a fact that Russia has never had the sympathy from the United States that she could have obtained had that government been more humane in its treatment of her Jewish population. Never have the Jews had recognition in any shape in that country except to extort money from them, and such treatment of their subjects in the eyes of a free people cannot fail but bring forth a feeling of disgust and contempt.

The fact that they have had no representation in any shape brought on a conference between a committee of representative American Jews with Mr. Witte a few days ago in the course of which the committee told him some straight facts concerning the reasons for the strong sentiment against Russia now prevailing in this country. They said—which is true—that the horrible treatment of its Jewish population by Russia has served to negate all Russian claim to the possession of anything deserving the name of high civilization; and they argued with Mr. Witte that only by the observance of true Christian liberality towards the Jews can Russia restore herself in the eyes of the civilized world.

Mr. Witte has force and strength enough to understand this matter, and if he takes the matter as he should and explains it to the Czar, he may be able to show that for the many outrages committed this odium rests upon the Russians and always will until relief is obtained.

The Orlando Star says: "Having proved the editor of The Reporter a liar, we now drop him to the level he belongs. He will need no special practice to command a craft in the next world upon the lake devoted especially to his kind, which burneth with fire and brimstone." No "mercy of the court" there.

The present war says Mr. Witte, has only served to confirm the proverbial bravery of the Russian soldier. Others who have been watching from a distance must be so far removed from the scene that they could not see it in that light.

Baking Watches.

"I will be with you in a moment. I must finish the baking of this batch of watches first."

The speaker was a jeweler. He said as he worked:

"I suppose you are surprised at the idea of watch baking. I will explain. The machinery of a watch is delicate, yet it must work the same in winter as in summer, the same in 122° in as in 12° below zero, the same in the Sahara as in Iceland. There is only one way to accomplish this—the watch must be regulated to heat and cold.

"I am regulating these watches to heat. Afterward, in a refrigerator, I will regulate them to cold. Then when they go out in the world they won't disagree themselves in any climate. Chronometers must be regulated more carefully than watches. They are often kept for weeks in temperatures that are now zero and now 120 degrees." Philadelphia Bulletin.

Incentives to Marriage.

Apparently the German town of Haschmuth does not believe in a state of single blessedness. Annual prizes are offered to the men who wed the ugliest, the most deformed and the oldest women in the town. Eighty dollars is paid to the man who marries the ugliest, while but $50 is the reward for the one marrying the cripple. All women over forty who have been jilted at least twice bring their spouses sums which vary according to the state of the fund, which was left by a rich resident of the town. The average price paid is $50 to each unless they should be unusually numerous, while the trustees are empowered to pay a larger sum when, in their judgment, it seems wise to hold forth a special inducement to procure the marriage of some particularly unfortunate woman.
